

The Mystery of the Cross

I don't understand

How a man can be God, or God be a man
How his love for us, produces hatred for him
How his authority can stimulate our rebellion
How his humiliation was his Father's will

How his servitude can set me free
How his condemnation is my forgiveness
How his wounds can bring me healing
How his suffering can give me relief

... or how his death has brought me life.

But I believe it's true.
